best of both worlds

UAM is proud to offer students the best of both worlds in terms of the university's size and resources. At UAM, you'll live on a close-knit campus in a safe college town with substantial resources and support. We're part of the state's largest system of higher education, but UAM's class sizes ensure that your professors know you by name.

More than a century ago, with the founding of our institution in 1909, a tradition of educational excellence began in southeast Arkansas. Since then, UAM has significantly grown in its enrollment and expanded its mission to offer affordable, high-quality education to anyone motivated to achieve their academic goals. We have students from 31 states and 19 countries attending classes on our Monticello campus, online and at our colleges of technology in McGehee and Crossett.

Should I live on campus?

The short answer: OF COURSE! We have more than 400 students who choose to live on campus each year. Living on campus is an easy way to become a part of our UAM community, but that's not the only benefit.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Research shows that students who live on campus for at least one year are more likely to complete their degrees within four years. Our residence halls have gathering spaces that are great for study groups, and each one has just a short walk to the Taylor Library and Technology Center.

OPTIONS THAT FIT YOU

With halls that feature double rooms, private rooms, apartment style, single-sex, co-ed or suite style living, you're sure to find a living arrangement that fits you. But don't wait to apply—housing space fills fast! We recommend completing your housing application as soon as it opens. For the fall semester, that usually occurs in mid-fall to late fall.

MAKE CONNECTIONS

It's easy to meet people on campus when living in a residence hall. The Office of Residence Life (and each residence hall) hosts events all year that will help you to meet your neighbors and make new friends. Joining in is a fun and effective way to find groups on campus that share your interests.

RESIDENCE HALL—

When you move into your new room at UAM, you can make it your own. Each hall has its own perks, and each room is unique. Choose a roommate or get matched up—you choose (as long as you sign the housing contract early enough). Meet your new neighbors and classmates at regular events on each floor and in each hall. And remember that easy access to on-campus activities and resources means on-campus residents are more likely to finish their degrees on time. Come live with us—it's the smart choice!

DINING ON CAMPUS IS EASY WITH A MEAL PLAN!

Students living on or off campus can choose a dining meal plan and eat at our cafeteria. Each meal plan also includes a declining balance that can be spent at the Boll Weevil Bistro: We Proudly Serve Starbucks, Chick-fil-A and the campus convenience store.

Mobile ordering through the Dining Sidekick app allows you to place an order as you leave one class and pick it up on the way to your next one.

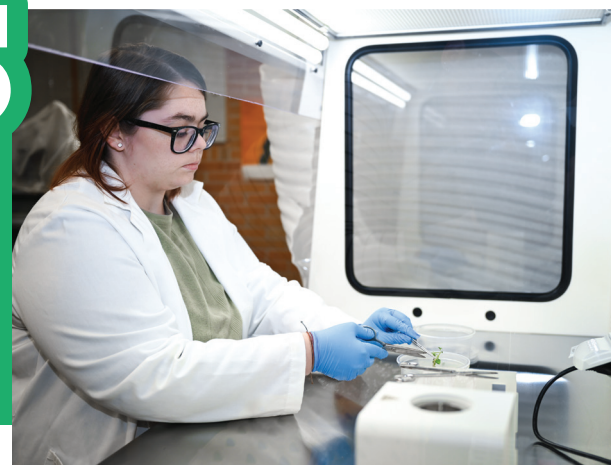

SPECIAL DIET?

Your voice. Your choice. The "Caf," as we call it, has several meal options available each day, and if you have any food allergies or dietary needs, we can take care of you. Plus, campus dining has a nutritionist to assist in serving our students the kinds of foods that they need and want! We're always trying new things and finding ways to get students involved in what menu items are offered. Student feedback is important and a huge part of how we operate. You will have a voice when it comes to what we serve!

ACADEMICS

Whatever you plan to study, UAM will get you on the academic path that you need to prepare for life after graduation. With a 12:1 student-to-faculty ratio, you're in the capable hands of professors who give you the attention you deserve in the classroom. When you visit campus for a tour, you can even speak to a faculty member in the department of your future major. Let us know when you schedule your visit if you have already chosen your field of study.

Higher education can (and should) be affordable.

Choosing where to attend college is a big decision, but anticipating the cost of college doesn't have to be complicated, and paying tuition shouldn't break the bank. UAM is committed to offering our programs at an accessible cost. In fact, undergraduate in-state tuition and fees at UAM are 23% below the national average among public colleges and universities.
