

Teacher Evaluation Data for the University of Arkansas at Monticello Completers in the 15 Partnership School Districts

Evaluation Year	Number of Teachers Required to Receive a Summative Evaluation this year under TESS From UAM	Number of Teachers Scoring Effective or Above under TESS From UAM	Percentage of Teachers Scoring Effective or Above under TESS From UAM	Percentage of Teachers Scoring Effective or Above under TESS Statewide
2017-2018	231	220	95%	97%
2018-2019	163	156	95%	96%
2019-2020	231	220	95%	97%

The Teacher Excellence and Support System (TESS) is the evaluation process for teachers in the state of Arkansas. The University of Arkansas at Monticello uses the TESS rubric to score candidates during the internship period and uses the same criteria in the employer and candidate satisfaction surveys. Based on the data, UAM completers are performing as well as other teachers across the state. The majority of the UAM completers are effective or above on the TESS rubric.